GENERAL INFORMATION

[The remainder of the page is almost entirely obscured by heavy black redaction bars and horizontal lines, rendering the text illegible.]

There are many advantages to attending summer school classes for the high school student who has previously enrolled in college.

Qualifications for vocational training are outlined in the Lamar School of Vocations Bulletin.

Requirements for admission to the undergraduate program of the College

STUDENT LOAD

No student will be permitted to register for more than eight semester hours in a given summer term or for more than fourteen semester hours for the complete summer session. Exceptions to this regulation may be made for seniors scheduled to be graduated at the end of current summer session. Such students may register for a maximum of fifteen semester hours during the complete summer

HOUSING

DORMITORIES

The dormitory housing program is part of the overall educational plan of the college. The Board of Regents has committed the college to maintaining full accuracy of all records in the dormitory.
